

nevermore

You filled our hearts with love
Surely you were an angel sent from above
While I was running all those miles
In my min I could picture your smile
You were always there
To show how much you really cared
But I just couldn't bare
It just wasn't fair
How you were taken from this world so very fast
When I heard the news I stood and gasped
At first I denied
I thought it was all a lie
Surely you couldn't of died
Then I had to except
I wept
I was so upset
That night I ran
I ran in fright
The moon was shining bright
I still call you're cell phone
Because I feel lonely and alone
I wish you were still here
So I will not have to live in this fear
Having a tear down my eye
I cried
For I had to say goodbye
I asked God why?
Why did you have to die
Remember the summer of 2001
We had so much fun
You always calling me hun
Everyday now when lay
I say I'm paying the price
For you not listening to my advice
Nevermore shall we hangout
Nevermore shall we talk about
Nevermore shall we go to Wendy's to eat
Nevermore shall we take walks in the summer heat
Nevermore shall we joke around
Nevermore shall I hear your voice sound
Although it really seems
For now you will only be in my dreams
Till the day we meet again
In my heart is where I keep you friend
I miss you so much Kristen. We all miss you
I love you so much Kristen. We all love you

You're friend till the end, hope?

It has been a while
These past weeks I've been confused like a lost child
Walking alone down the road in the dark
Having such a lonely heart
With no one around
I was falling to the ground
But with trust I was found
Trust in you who I will not forsake
For I have learned from my mistakes
Even in the past it was hard to tell
If this was heaven or if this was hell
But your still in my mind
And I will never be blind
Blinded with loss and sorrow
I look forward to seeing you again but not tomorrow
But is this hope, could it be
I'm not so sure if I can see
But as the sun will set
And as so many people have wept
I will always try my best
I will always go on and never will I rest
For I will never give up! And I will never fail!
I will always go on I will always prevail

be in our hearts forever

Decisions in life to make
Along the road with steps to take
Will all this continue to last?
Just as it did in the past
Will all this pain ever go away
Or will it stay the same
In life its like climbing up a long rope
So try not to loose hope
For now you are lonely and sad
But someday again you will be glad You're gone but we just can't see
For it is you who we need
For the rest of our life guide us with the shining light
Stay with us through the dark night
Be with us till the end
Even in our darkest moments when the light is dim
A great friend you were
And that's for sure
So never say never

Your friend forever,
Scott L.

hate

Hate is flowing in Growing, living within her
Soon the heat turns back

jealousy

Pure green with envy
Jealousy grows within him
Soon he will explode

goodness

Happy was her life
Shining, glowing, lightly high
She lived a great life
